BRANSON IN MAY

Featuring: SAMPSON @ Sight & Sound Theatre

May 6 – 9, 2019

HOTEL LODGING: The Radisson

Hughes Brothers:

Some say “keep it in the family” and that’s just what the Hughes Brothers have done! As the family has grown, so has the presence of the children in the show. With over 30 Hughes Kids now in every show, the Hughes Brothers can claim the description of the “World’s Largest Performing Family.” Certainly the Hughes Brothers Show boasts one of the largest casts in Branson! And these kids are full of talent and energy! They’ve worked hard to be able to sing, dance and perform their instruments in the show. The brothers’ equally talented wives also perform in the show. Marty’s beautiful wife Cindy sings and dances in the show. Jason actually met his wife Mara when they performed together in a show at a theme park named Lagoon. Ryan’s wife Carina is a classically trained prima ballerina and has danced on stages from San Francisco to New York City. And as Andy’s wife Becky sings and dances alongside Carina, you may notice a certain resemblance between the two. It’s no coincidence; they’re sisters! Adam’s wife Vikki was the last wife to marry into the family. She has a wide range of talents from the stage to scrap-booking. None of the wives are strangers to the stage; most are performance veterans, having sung, danced, and acted throughout their lives. The Hughes Brothers have taken 1st place in several contests, including the Dodge/Wrangler Country Music Showdown, the True Value Hardware Showdown, the Utah You Are the Star Contest, and the national Starmania contest held in Las Vegas. The Nashville Academy of Independent Recording Artists nominated their album “Talkin’ to the Man” for four different awards, and they ranked in the top five finalists for Group of the Year; a fantastic start in the recording business. And since arriving in Branson they have received several awards at the Branson Entertainment Awards Gala, including: Branson’s “Tradition Award”, “Branson’s Best Morning Show Award” and “Branson’s Best Vocal Group Award.” But far above all the recognition and awards, they feel their greatest achievement is owning and operating their own theater the “Hughes American Family Theatre”. Since their audiences come to them, they can stay off the road...and be with their families.

Six:

Their television debut in 1978 was on The Osmond Brothers Special where they performed alongside singing legends Crystal Gayle, Andy Gibb, and Bob Hope. The brothers turned their passion into a full-time career in 1995, going from singing on the streets of Los Angeles to headlining sold-out venues. SIX has since shared the stage with such famous names as Trisha Yearwood, Diana Ross, the Beach Boys, Olivia Newton John, Rod Stewart, and the Doobie Brothers. Infusing lively choreography and dysfunctional family comedy into the show as only brothers can do, they perform everything from contemporary pop to R&B to classic rock 'n' roll to doo-wop to gospel to patriotic. They currently perform as a top-rated show in the live music capital of the world ... Branson!! SIX not only continues to push the envelope, always adding new material that's fresh, unique, and unexpected, but also continues to amaze audiences with their ability to consistently deliver powerhouse vocals, impeccable harmonies, and unparalleled high-end, professional productions. Once you experience it, you will understand the power of SIX!

Sampson!! ... by Sight & Sound:

With supernatural strength and long, luscious hair, "Samson" has been set apart to deliver God's people from the hands of the Philistines. The original superhero, he can defeat entire armies and slay lions. But there's a catch to his superpower: He must follow the rules. And that's where the trouble begins. As "Samson" battles the Philistines - and his own personal calling - he soon falls prey to temptation, losing his strength and sight. But has he lost hope? He's a frequent failure and an underachiever—yet in the New Testament book of Hebrews "Samson" is included on the all-star list of faith. How could this be? Discover how God transforms this unwilling hero to accomplish His work. New for 2018, experience this Bible story in jaw-dropping scale as it's brought to life by a world-class cast, spectacular special effects and live animals – on stage and in the aisles. It's an unforgettable, uplifting thrill ride that literally brings the house down!
