 LIMITED AVAILABILITY THRU SEPTEMBER 25, 2024 *****

TOUR DESCRIPTION

Experience It! The Northern Lights: Each year, during the winter months, travelers’ journey to Iceland and venture out into the dark to see the magical but elusive northern lights (aurora borealis). This natural phenomenon is the product of collisions between electrically charged particles from the sun that enter the earth’s atmosphere; the results are spectacular. Streaks of colorful light appear across the sky. The colors can vary from white to pink or purple and, most commonly, green. It is known that the best time to witness the lights in Iceland is from late September to mid-April, when the nights are the longest. This light show is truly dazzling and worth the pursuit.

TOUR ACTIVITY LEVEL 3: This means you are an on-the-go traveler. You do not want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) is not a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. The roads in Costa Rica are notoriously poor and impacted by heavy rains each season making them bumpy and requiring lower driving speeds. To experience all that we have included on this tour, we will spend an average of 4-5 hours on your coach to travel to your next stay. You can expect winding and some unpaved roads along the way. Many accommodations can be spread out and you should be prepared to walk a variety of terrain to get to public spaces like resort lobbies and restaurants; you may need to access your room through outdoor pathways. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

 LIMITED AVAILABILITY THRU AUGUST 11, 2024 *****

Experience It! BROADWAY, New York City’s theater district, runs from 41st Street to 53rd Street between Sixth and Ninth Avenues. The first theater was built in 1798 and over the years, the district has grown to 40 theaters that are now considered “on Broadway.” In 1927, the street was nicknamed the “Great White Way” due to the bright white lights that illuminated the streets and advertised the multitude of shows. During this period, the shows were mostly comedies and operettas, and some vaudeville. Many of the Broadway shows that we know today were developed in the 1940s. Rodgers and Hammerstein were the pioneers who first combined song, dance, comedy, and drama to create the modern musical. The lights are still shining bright, theater attendance is thriving, and to be “on Broadway” is now the most highly respected achievement for theater professionals.

NATIONAL PARKS of AMERICA

Partnered w/ Collette Vacations

September 6 – 17, 2025

 LIMITED AVAILABILITY THRU MARCH 6, 2025 *****

TOUR DESCRIPTION

Experience It! See History Cast in Stone! In 1925, Gutzon Borglum set out to create a gigantic work of art. Armed with four hundred men and one million dollars, he began carving a 5,725-foot mountain into a national masterpiece. The mountain's name is Mount Rushmore and the men whose images are carved into its façade symbolize the first 150 years of United States history. Immortalized in stone are George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt and Abraham Lincoln. Creating the memorial was a difficult task. The rock on Mount Rushmore was so strong, dynamite was the most practical way to mold the monument. Once the stone was blasted to within inches of Borglum's measurements, the faces were fine-tuned with hammers and chisels. Fourteen years after construction began, Borglum died, leaving the final phases of construction to his son, Lincoln. All work on Mount Rushmore concluded for good in October of 1941, on the eve of World War II. Interestingly enough, what you see immortalized in the Black Hills of South Dakota is actually an unfinished masterpiece. Borglum's original plans called for the four men to be carved all the way down to their waists.

TOUR ACTIVITY LEVEL 3: You are an on-the-go traveler. You do not want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) is not a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Lastly, pay a visit to the home of Ben & Jerry’s Ice Cream, founded in 1978 in a renovated gas station. In Portland, Maine, take a scenic cruise around Casco Bay before

TEXAS TRIO

March 31 – April 3, 2025

 LIMITED AVAILABILITY THRU February 28, 2025 *****

TOUR DESCRIPTION

April showers bring May flowers! Isn’t that how the saying goes? It is certainly true in Texas, where the winter rains bring the beautiful wildflowers of spring. Around these parts, bluebonnets begin to bloom each March and reach their peak covering North Texas roadsides and pastures through April, depending on the unpredictable weather patterns also associated with our neck of the woods. It is during this time that many gardeners begin to imagine that sea of blue in their own home landscapes. If you have had that same thought, or maybe even tried to establish your own wildflower meadow with limited success, you might want to join us on the breath-taking adventure. Along with the beautiful Texas Bluebonnets, we will visit the Presidential Libraries of Lyndon B. Johnson (#36), George H. W. Bush (#41), and George W. Bush (#43). We will even enjoy some good Texas BBQ along the way.
